Our visit to Cambridge this year will be to Queens’ College on Wednesday 27th September. The visit will include a talk on ‘The Dissolution of the Monasteries’ by Professor Richard Rex, a seated buffet lunch in the Old Hall and a tour of the College and gardens with a member of the College Development Office.

Professor Richard Rex is the Polkinghorne Fellow in Religious Studies and Theology, Deputy Senior Tutor and Lecturer in History. His research work is focussed on religious change in England in the late medieval and early modern era, in particular during the reign of Henry VIII. He is currently working on a book on Martin Luther.

The programme for the day is;

10.30am: Meet for coffee/tea in Lyon Court if the weather is fine or outside the Bowett Room if not.

11.00am: Professor Richard Rex will give us a talk in the Bowett Room on ‘The Dissolution of the Monasteries’ plus a brief history of the College.

12.30pm: Two course seated buffet lunch in the Old Hall with tea/coffee to finish. There will be a cash bar to purchase drinks.

After lunch there will be a tour of the College and gardens with a member of the College Development Office.

The cost is £36 per person. Please complete the enclosed Invitation Form and post with your cheque to David Smith, SCS Treasurer/Secretary at the address on the Form.

If you are not on email, please enclose a s.a.e with your completed invitation form and cheque.
