PROVISIONAL FORTHCOMING PROGRAMME, 2024-25

It is likely that there will be some modifications and additions to these plans. Members will be kept up to date as we go along.

Thursday 19th September 2024

Bethany Agnew will talk about 'The Coleridges at Nether Stowey', followed by lunch at The Cottage Inn, Keenthorne, near Nether Stowey. Members may wish to visit the Nether Stowey Cottage (National Trust) afterwards.

Wednesday 6th November, 2024

We shall meet at Bridgwater and Taunton College for a talk by David Elington on 'Roman Somerset', preceded by lunch prepared by the catering students.

February, 2025

Lyndsey Shaw-Miller is our speaker, and her theme 'The co-existence of pagan and religious imagery in sacred places', including reference to Somerset and Devon. Date and venue to be confirmed.

April, 2025

John Dawer's subject is 'Bhopal, 1984 - the world's worst industrial disaster'. We shall meet for lunch at The Beambridge Inn near Wellington. Date to be confirmed. This will also be our AGM.

June, 2025

A Summer Social Evening at a members' home near Woolavington.
