

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge Society of South Wales
Oxf*rd and Cambridge Boat Race Social Event 2022
Llandaff Rowing Club, The Boathouse, Bridge Road, Llandaff, Cardiff
Sat Nav: CF5 2PT

Sunday 3rd April from 1400hrs

We are holding our (annual) gathering at Llandaff Rowing Club who is very generously hosting this event free of charge to help raise funds for its local charity. CamSoc Members and their partners, friends and family are welcome to attend.

Order of the Day

14:00 – Afternoon-tea buffet (sandwiches, cakes etc.) available throughout the event

£10pp which includes a £5 donation to Llandaff Rowing Club's charity*

14:23 – The 76th Women's Race

15:23 – The 167th Men's Race

Club bar (cash/card) will be open for teas, coffees, beers, wines, and spirits. We should particularly welcome current undergraduates free of charge; just send your name(s) to Steve.

If you would like to come, then please e-mail our treasurer, Steve Talbot steve@stevetalbot.com, by Sunday 19th March, letting him know how many places you would like and transfer £10pp to:

Reference: Your Name/LRC
Sort Code: 20-18-15
Account Number: 40993239
Account Name: The Cambridge Society – South East Wales Branch

Parking is available at LRC but may be busy, owing to an internal Club competition.

GDBO.

Best wishes,
Tony
A G Douglas-Jones
Chair, The Cambridge Society of South Wales

*Llandaff Junior Parents' Association promotes health, physical activity, and well-being among young persons in the local community.