Poulton is a small farming hamlet just outside Chester with a fascinating archaeological story to tell. Over the past twenty years, archaeologists from the Poulton Research Project have been uncovering the remains of over 10,000 years of human activity. Kevin Cootes, Consultant Archaeologist and Site Director will show us around the site.

Venue - Poulton Archaeological Site CH4 9EE

Date - Saturday 14th April 2018

Programme
Lunch 12 for 12.30 at the Grosvenor Arms, Pulford, CH4 9DG.
See pre-order menu below, and choose 2 out of 3 courses.
For the site visit afterwards, please meet at Brookside farm at 2.15, going through the village, across the junction, past the red post box and turning right to park there, on the left-hand side away from the building.

Cost per person
£20 per person including 2 course lunch and event. Donations will be requested on the site towards the ongoing excavation.

Access and Parking
There is good access and parking at the Grosvenor Pulford.

The site visit is not suitable for anyone with impaired mobility as the ground is uneven and the site is accessed on foot over field paths, approx ¾ mile. Toilet facilities on site are also difficult to access though adequate for those physically able.

Contact on the day: Janet Myers, 07913 818426.

Children (persons under 18 years old) are welcome if they are accompanied by a responsible adult.
