The Surrey Society’s annual pilgrimage to the Thames for the Boat Race Meeting will take place at the Dukes Meadows Golf Club which can be found on the A316 Great Chertsey Road, next to Chiswick Bridge on the River Thames, one mile south of the Hogarth roundabout. The towpath near the club affords an excellent view of the finish of the race; other stages of the race may be seen on television in the bar area. A good attendance in 2018 saw the Light Blues win all four races for the first time in ?? years, a complete restoration of Fenland superiority. And a warm welcome to members of other adjacent Cambridge Societies who join us on the day.

This year’s event will take place from 12.15 on Sunday 7th April. The provisional programme will be:

- 12.15 Earliest guest arrival – time to socialise, have a drink
- 12.45 Cold buffet lunch in own room with colour TV; cash bar available
- 14.15 The Newton Women’s Boat Race
- 14.30 The Osiris/Blondie Race
- 14.45 The Isis/Goldie Race
- 15.15 The BNY Mellon Boat Race
- 16.15 Approx: Guests depart

The full cost of adult tickets is £32 each, excluding beverages (£16 for children under 12), unchanged on 2018. A cash bar is available for drinks, teas/coffees etc. Your applications should be sent to Adrian Tollett (Tel : 01932 845673) using the form below. Latest application date – Thursday 28th March 2019, please.

Ample parking is available. Directions and further information will be sent with tickets. Any Special Dietary Requirements should please be indicated on the form and we will endeavour to accommodate any requests.
