

Cambridge Society of Surrey, Autumn Meeting 2017:
at CHARTERHOUSE SCHOOL, GODALMING, on Saturday 16th September 2017

(1) Oxfam GB, London Marathon

(2) Dame Barbara Stocking

(3) Charterhouse School

The Autumn 2017 meeting is on Saturday 16th September, starting with tea or coffee at 10.30am in THE ARMOURY at Charterhouse; followed at 11.00am with a talk in the LECTURE THEATRE by Dame Barbara Stocking (New Hall 1969) on the topical subject of “My years at OXFAM and the many challenges of humanitarian crises in a changing world” with time for a Q&A session at the conclusion of her talk. At 1pm, a hot/cold buffet lunch will be served in the CONCERT HALL, with tea/coffee, and non-alcoholic beverages.

Dame Barbara became the 5th President of Murray Edwards College, founded as New Hall, in July 2013. In March 2015, she was appointed Chair of the Independent Panel of Experts to assess WHO’s response in the Ebola outbreak. The Final Report was published in July 2015. Prior to taking up her post at Murray Edwards College, Barbara was Chief Executive of Oxfam GB from May 2001 until February 2013. During this time she led major humanitarian responses. On campaigning, Barbara led Oxfam’s work on Make Poverty History, and more recently their work on climate change and the current Grow campaign on food justice in a resource constrained world. Barbara regularly spoke at major global meetings. Previously a member of the top management team of the National Health Service, in her eight years with the NHS Barbara worked as a regional director for the South East of England, and then as the founding Director of the NHS Modernisation Agency. Barbara is married to Dr John MacInnes and has two sons. She was awarded a CBE for health services in 2000 and a Dame Commander of the British Empire (DBE) for humanitarian services in 2008.
