Thursday 17th October 2018 Autumn Lecture and Supper at Lancaster Royal Grammar School

In the Board Room, Old School House. Adjacent Parking available.

The speaker this year is Stephan Harker (Emmanuel 1965), Natural Scientist, Theologian, and Priest, for 27 years Senior Chaplain of Charterhouse.

Stephan will examine the life and times of the Russian poet Boris Leonidovich Pasternak (1890 – 1960) and present an analysis of his Nobel Prize-winning Novel, Doctor Zhivago (1956) and how its insights interpret features of our contemporary world. The Nobel Prize award to the novel triggered a savage condemnation by the Soviet Government, Pravda, and the Writers’ Union, but it endured to see the collapse of the Soviet Union.

The programme is:
6.30 pm drinks
7.00 pm lecture followed by questions
8.00 pm buffet supper

The cost is £23 per person. Wine and soft drinks will be provided.

If you wish to attend, please complete the attached slip and return it. We need to receive this by Friday 11th October. Guests are welcome.
