It is with great pleasure to share the honour of having Professor Nicola Padfield, Master of Fitzwilliam College, Cambridge, and a Professor of Criminal and Penal Justice in the Law Faculty of the University of Cambridge as our honourable guest. She lectures and supervises undergraduates in criminal law, criminal procedure and evidence, and sentencing and the penal system. She sat as a Recorder in the Crown Court from 2002-2014, a rare appointment for an academic. Her research focuses on sentencing and parole. She is a Bencher of the Middle Temple and a strong supporter of the Cambridge Middle Temple Society. Come and join us for exchanges of ideas.
