Grendon Court is owned by Mark (Trinity 1976) and Kate Edwards. It has a contemporary garden designed by Tom Stuart-Smith. The garden is planted on 2 levels - a delightful collection of mass planted perennials and grasses of different heights, textures and colour to give all year-round interest. The upper walled garden with a sea of flowery grasses are a highlight with views of the new pond and valley walk.

Kate Edwards will give a brief explanation and will walk round the garden with us answering any questions.

You should bring wellies/boots if you want to stroll down the valley later.

The garden is accessible for disabled people.

Our speaker, Air Vice Marshal Michael Jackson, is an Alumnus of Wolfson College, Cambridge. After successive roles in the RAF as a navigator and commander in several countries he became Defence & Air Attaché in Warsaw during the Cold War, subsequently being appointed Director of the Joint Air Reconnaissance Intelligence Centre and then Director General, Defence Intelligence Staff. After leaving the RAF he became Executive Director for two U.S. Corporations responsible for business in the defence & intelligence sectors. He has been a governor of the Duke of York’s Royal Military School and recently directed the renovation and conservation of the ancient Guildhall in Bury St Edmunds.
