Cambridge Society of Surrey, Spring Meeting 2018: at WINDLESHAM GOLF CLUB, on Saturday 10th March 2018

(1) Reform: Nicky’s passion         (2) Fitzwilliam Master, Nicky Padfield    (3) Fitzwilliam’s bold crest

The Spring 2018 meeting is on Saturday 10th March at Windlesham Golf Club: starting with tea or coffee at 10.30am in the Lutine Suite followed at 11.00am with a stimulating talk by Nicola (Nicky) Padfield, Master of Fitzwilliam College, eminent lawyer - and by coincidence a Windlesham native - on “Access and Opportunity: Lessons from both the University of Cambridge and the prison estate (with some levity on the side?)” - time for Q&A at the conclusion of her talk. A brief AGM from 12.15pm, then drinks, a hot lunch in the Orangery Room, expected to finish around 3pm.

In October 2013 Nicky Padfield became the 8th Master of Fitzwilliam College. She is Professor of Criminal and Penal Justice in the Faculty of Law at the University of Cambridge and, in addition to her academic work and duties as Master, she has been a Recorder of the Crown Court and is a Bencher of the Middle Temple. Her law studies took her from St Anne’s College Oxford (Jurisprudence), to Darwin College Cambridge (Criminology), and to the University of Aix-Marseille (French law). Her research has focussed on criminal justice processes and sentencing, and she continues to be author of many works on these topics. She and her husband Christopher (Fitzwilliam 1968 Engineering) are passionate advocates of prison reform. We look forward to welcoming her back to Windlesham.
