THE 71st ANNUAL OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE DINNER
will be held Friday, May 11, 2018
at the National Press Club
14th and F Streets, N.W., Top Floor
Cocktails at 7 p.m., Dinner at 8 p.m.

All members of Oxford or Cambridge and their guests are cordially invited to attend this renowned event, the largest such gathering to take place on a continuing basis anywhere in the world. Originally linked to The Boat Race, it promises an evening of fine wine and cuisine and exceptional speakers from both Universities.

Kasie S. Hunt (St. John’s College, Cambridge), political correspondent for NBC News and MSNBC and the anchor of Kasie DC on MSNBC, who began at NBC News as an intern and progressed to off-air reporter, producer and correspondent, and who appears regularly on Morning Joe, Hardball with Chris Matthews, and With All Due Respect, will give the Toast to the Universities.

The price of the dinner is $130 per person ($110 for those who came down in the past five years), wine included. Dress is black tie (preferred), college blazer, evening kilt, or equivalent. The National Press Club entrance is on 14th Street just below F Street with parking in nearby garages, and street parking available after 6:30 p.m. The closest Metro stop is Metro Center. Attendance at the Dinner is also open to spouses, partners and guests of those of who have attended Cambridge or Oxford.

Reservations cannot be accepted beyond the capacity of the room. Accordingly, please send your acceptance and check without delay, using the acceptance form which follows. Checks should be made out to the Oxford and Cambridge Committee and mailed to David B. Law, Hon. Treas., c/o Curtin Law Roberson Dunigan & Salans, 1900 M Street, N.W., Suite 600, Washington, D.C. 20036, for receipt on or before May 8, 2018. No tickets will be issued; you will be recognized at the door.
