Data protection statement

This statement explains how we, the Cambridge Society of Surrey, handle and use the personal data we collect about you, our members and our past, current and future supporters. Developing a better understanding of our members and supporters allows us to keep in touch with you, in order to keep you apprised of our activities and developments, to provide services to you, and to identify ways in which you can support us.

We are committed to protecting your personal information and being transparent about what information we hold.

Personal data that we hold

We hold information relating to you from a number of sources, and a significant proportion of the information we hold is that which you have provided to us (eg by filling in membership forms or by corresponding with us by telephone, email or otherwise).

Most records contain:

- education details (e.g. your Cambridge college, matriculation date and subjects read)
- your contact details (updated whenever you let us know that they have changed)
- details of your interactions with us, including:
  - your membership and offices held with us
  - your attendance at Surrey events
- details about your family (e.g. your marital status, the name of your partner or spouse)
- personal data provided by you for a specific purpose (e.g. disability and dietary preferences for event management purposes)
- your communication preferences, to help us provide tailored and relevant communications
- We also record, where applicable, based on information which you provide to us and, in some cases, publicly available information and information from our partners (see below), and information about your areas of interest and extra-curricular activities

How we use your data

Your data is used by us for a number of interdependent purposes in support of alumni relations, supporter communications. These include:

- sending you publications (e.g. newsletters and event booking forms)
- conducting surveys
- providing services
- inviting you to our events
- internal record keeping, including the management of any feedback or complaints
• administrative purposes (e.g. in order to administer an event you have registered for or attended)

• Communications to you may be sent by post, telephone or electronic means (principally by email), depending on the contact details we hold, the consent that you have provided, and the preferences expressed by you about the types of communications you wish to receive.

If you have concerns or queries about any of these purposes, or how we communicate with you, please contact us using the details listed below.

We will always respect a request by you to stop processing your personal data, and in addition your statutory rights are set out below.

When we share your data with others (our partners)

We share the above categories of data with the University and the Colleges to provide you with a coordinated approach. Any transmission of data to or from the University and Colleges is managed through agreed processes which comply with relevant data protection legislation. The University and each College has its own data protection statement and procedures.

Additionally, we share the above categories of data on a considered and confidential basis, where appropriate, with other Cambridge alumni groups.

How we protect your data

We ensure we have appropriate data sharing arrangements in place before sharing your personal data.

We do not sell your personal data to third parties under any circumstances.

We also facilitate communication between individual members, but in doing so we do not release personal contact details without prior permission.

Any transfers of your data overseas (outside of the European Economic Area), as set out above, are protected either by an 'adequacy decision' by the European Commission (declaring the recipient country as a 'safe' territory for personal data) or by standard contractual clauses adopted by the European Commission (which give obligations for the recipient to safeguard the data). Further information about the measures we use to protect data when being transferred internationally is available from us (via the contact details are set out below).

Your rights

You have the right to:

• ask us for access to, or rectification or erasure of your data

• restrict processing (pending correction or deletion)

• object to communications or direct marketing

• ask for the transfer of your data electronically to a third party (data portability)
You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner’s Office at https://ico.org.uk/concerns/

Further information

The legal basis for processing your personal data for the interdependent purposes set out above is that it is necessary for the pursuit of our legitimate interests. We always handle your personal data securely and minimise its use, and there is no overriding prejudice to you by using your personal information for these purposes. In addition, there is no statutory or contractual requirement for you to provide us with any personal data.

The controller for your personal data is the Secretary, Robin Bell, and he can be contacted at farthings6@gmail.com or at “Farthings,” Snows Paddock, Windlesham, Surrey GU20 6LH.

Please contact us if you have any concerns or questions about the above information or you wish to ask us not to process your personal data for particular purposes. Where you have specific requests relating to how we manage your data, we will endeavour to resolve these, but please note that there may be circumstances where we cannot comply with specific requests.

We will retain your data in support of your relationship with us or until you request us to do otherwise. We will publish any changes we make to this data protection statement and notify you by other communication channels where appropriate.

Where you exercise your right to erasure, we will continue to maintain a core set of personal data (name, membership details, unique identification number and date of birth) to ensure we do not contact you inadvertently in future.